Nutrition & Smart Supplementation

Sadly we don't get the nutrients in our diet that we once did before the industrial age. In order for our bodies to function at their optimum and thrive, supplementation, especially as we age, is ultra important.

The following supplements are what I use and recommend to the people I work with. The foundation of Everything we build on. - Deborah

The MetaPWR System

Three Simple Steps to Help You Live with More Life in Your Years!

Step 1 MetaPWR™ METABOLIC BLEND

Four Choices of How You Use the MetaPWR Blend, with all the same benefits! You choose daily what you want your Step 1 to be and can be taken throughout the day.

A uniquely formulated blend of Grapefruit, Lemon, Peppermint, Ginger, and Cinnamon Bark.

Let's just call it, "Will power in a bottle."

13 of every 14 people can benefit from metabolic health support right now.

The power of our pure essential oils fueling every aspect of the MetaPWR® system

Helps manage hunger throughout the day while supporting healthy metabolism.*

Inhibits fat cell maturation.*

Curbs cravings.*

Supports metabolic health.*

MetaPWR™ blend in a gum, softgels, and beadlets, all of which are convenient for life on-the-go. You have support anywhere you go!

Step 2 MetaPWR™ ASSIST

This amazing carb-blocker is taken with your biggest meal of the day. Can also be taken with every meal.

MetaPWR™ Assist contains multiple natural compounds clinically evidenced to promote healthy blood sugar regulation.*

Less than 7% of the US adult population have optimal metabolic health, most of us can afford a little support. That's what MetaPWR™ Assist is for.*

MetaPWR™ Metabolic Assist helps minimize the impact of constant spikes and crashes in your blood sugar.*

The stronger and healthier your metabolic function, the better you'll feel from the inside-out.

It turns 'fast carbs' into 'slow carbs' reducing our meal-time blood glucose spikes.*

Supports healthy blood sugar responses.*

Stabilizes energy levels throughout the day.*

Supports healthy insulin sensitivity.*

Decreases post meal glucose spikes.*

Step 3

MetaPWR™ ADVANTAGE

There is nothing like Advantage on the Market! This delicious citrus beverage is taken once a day at the time that works best for you. I like the energy it gives me around 3pm.

dōTERRA® MetaPWR™ Advantage contains our proprietary HealthspanComplex®, formulated with 12 synergistic active ingredients that can slow biological aging and extend our healthspan.*

By middle age, NAD+ levels in the body are half what they are during our youth! NAD+ ensures proper cell function so we can age in a healthy way.

At a young age, the body is made up of 30% collagen, but this percentage declines with age.

Difficulty managing weight and decreased energy levels?

While most collagen nutraceutical products use only one or two collagen peptide types, MetaPWR™ Advantage contains nine.

Slow biological aging and extend our healthspan.*

Supports your body's ability to produce NAD+, optimizing your metabolic health and extending your healthspan.*
